Health and Social Care Tutor (Distance Learning)

Description

Health and Social Care Tutor (Distance Learning) Tutor

Part-Time Flexible Home Based Working

Course Development / Tutor Role for Online College

Immediate Start for the right candidate.

Flexible Hours Remote Working

iLearn Group (UK) Ltd is a rapidly growing online education provider delivering accredited qualifications at Levels 3 to 5. We specialise in flexible, fully online learning for students worldwide, using a blend of interactive digital workbooks, video content, and expert tutor guidance.

As a 100% online institution, we make extensive use of advanced digital learning environments and cloud-based platforms. For this reason, we require candidates with exceptional IT skills, confidence using digital tools, and the ability to adapt quickly to new technologies and processes. This is essential for maintaining the high-quality learner experience we pride ourselves on.

We are currently looking to engage the services of a Health and Social Care Tutor to engage with the development of online learning content. For the right candidate, the role may also include ongoing support to learners, including marking, feedback, and academic guidance.

This is a part-time, remote, and flexible position—ideal for a professional looking to contribute to online education programmes alongside other commitments.

About the Role

The initial focus will be on:

- Creating structured, high-quality written and visual learning materials for online delivery
- Developing worked examples, problem sets, and digital activities that support self-paced learning
- Ensuring content is academically sound, well-organised, and accessible to learners studying independently
- Assessing student work and providing feedback
- Providing remote student support.

Subject Matter You'll be Confident in

You will be confident in providing student support (no lectures required, but marking and one to one remote tutorial support) in the following subject matter:

- Health and Social Care at Levels 3, 4 and 5
